A PRAYER.

Let me be a little kinder, Let me a little biinder, To the faults of those about me, Let me praise a little more; Let me be when I am weary Just a little bit more cheery— Let me serve a little better Those that I am striving for.

Let me be a little braver
When temptation bids me waver,
Let me strive a little harder
To be all that I should be;
Let me be a little mecker
With the brother who is weaker,
Let me think more of my neighbor
And a little less of me.

And a little less of me.

Let me be a little sweeter—
Make my life a bit completer,
By doing what I should do,
Every minute of the day.
Let me toil without complaining,
Not an humble task disdaining;
Let me face the summons calmly
When death beckons me away.
